Research Guide #4

Learning Goal: Students will be able to recognize social, political, and economic components of a specific event/conflict/theme of the Cold War.

Today, you will build upon the categorizing we started last class only you will focus only on your topic. You may use the paper that we started last time with our own lists of the social, economic, and political aspects of the Cold War in general. Please list 10 characteristics under each category. The purpose of this task is so you may understand each of the social, political, and economic characteristics of your project so in the future you only have to explain how they affected the Cold War. Keep up the good work!!
